Girlguiding Midlands Training Weekend

WHO IS IT FOR?

Duke of Edinburgh's Award participants who want to be trained for all aspects of the Expedition Section at Gold level.

Queen's Guide participants who need to be trained for an expedition as part of the Outdoor Challenge Section.

WHAT WILL WE DO?

Provide all the required training for your Gold DofE or Queen's Guide expedition.

Deliver practical sessions on all aspects of the training required, especially Navigation in Wild Country, at Gold level of the Award.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Camp in your expedition tent, self cater for yourself or group, using your own food and cooker. Help with this will be available.

Undertake practical navigation journeys, including an overnight expedition, in Wild Country at Gold level.

Work in groups to gain the knowledge you require to complete your Gold Award.

Make new friends and if needed form expedition teams.

The full cost of the weekend is £45.00

This includes: -

- ◆ Camp fees
- ◆ Hot water for drinks throughout the weekend

Participants must provide their own transport to / from the camp site at Rowen, equipment including tents, cookers and food suitable for lightweight camping, as well as clothing and rucksacks for the whole weekend.

Rowen Campsite is on the edge of the Snowdonia National Park
