

Become a peer educator

For Girlguiding members aged 14 – 25

A flexible role where you can use your own life experiences to run fun, safe and challenging sessions with younger members about important topics such as mental health and challenging gender stereotypes.

Grow your skills!

Becoming a peer educator can help you:

- Make your CV stand out
- Support your university application
- Go towards your Queen's Guide award
- Gain confidence with working with children and young adults
- Learn new skills and meet new people

Sound interesting?

Take a look at our upcoming peer educator training weekend on 6 – 8 March at Blackmore Campsite in Worcestershire!

You can find the event details on the Girlguiding Midlands website or scan here to find out more and sign up!

