

Innovation growth lead
volunteer role

Innovation growth lead volunteer

Purpose of the role	Lead the Midlands growth think tank to promote the regional membership growth strategy and support counties in delivering their growth plans.
Who appoints this role?	Chief commissioner
Who supports this role?	Chief commissioner, deputy chief commissioner, guiding delivery group, nominated staff member
Length of appointment	3 years with an option to extend for a further 2 years
Who can hold this role?	The lead volunteer for this role can be any adult over 18 years old.
Requirements	Must be (or willing to become) an active member of Girlguiding Midlands aged 18+). Travel to meetings and events may be required for which reasonable travel expenses may be claimed.
About the role	You will: • Lead the Girlguiding Midlands growth think tank to achieve region objectives • Support the attraction and recruitment of think tank members • Oversee and deliver the region innovation growth plan • Chair at least six think tank meetings per year • Produce quarterly progress reports to the membership growth, retention and transition lead volunteer • Facilitate effective, two-way communication between counties and the think tank • Represent Girlguiding Midlands at national and regional meetings, providing feedback to all stakeholders • Support other region meetings and events as required
About your Personal skills and qualities required for the role	You will ... • Be creative, forward thinking, and excited by the future of Girlguiding • Lead with energy, enthusing and supporting our think tank and county volunteers • Have an open and approachable manner • Show resilience in the face of challenges • Demonstrate excellent organisation and communication skills • Recognise the importance of managing internal and external communication in a timely manner • Be able to travel to meetings within the region and in other UK locations as required.

How to apply	Apply via our online application form
Queen's Guide Award	This opportunity can be used to fulfil elements of the Queen's Guide award.
General	Girlguiding welcomes volunteers of all backgrounds, ages, cultures, faiths, and abilities. We are flexible, and volunteering can be arranged to fit around a busy lifestyle. Please note this is a volunteer role; this role description does not form part of any contract of employment.